AAA-ICDR® PANEL FEE 2026

For Commercial, Construction, Consumer, Employment, ICDR, and Labor Arbitrators and AAA-ICDR Mediators

Panel Fee for Commercial, Construction, Consumer, Employment, and ICDR Panelists:

All AAA Commercial, Construction, Consumer, Employment, and ICDR panelists that are active on the AAA-ICDR Roster will be assessed and required to pay an annual panel fee in order to remain active on the AAA-ICDR Roster. This annual fee is based on the prior year's compensation received through the AAA-ICDR.

Attorneys
$0 - $10,000	$275
$10,000.01 - $25,000	$700
$25,000.01 - $50,000	$800
$50,000.01 - $100,000	$1,200
$100,000.01 - $150,000	$1,750
$150,000.01 - $250,000	$2,500
$250,000.01 - $500,000	$3,000
$500,000.01 and above	$6,000

Non-attorney (industry professionals) panelists whose prior-year compensation was less than $100,000 are exempt from the panel fee.

Non-U.S.-based ICDR panelists whose prior-year compensation was less than $10,000 will be exempt from the panel fee.

Panel Fee for Labor Panelists:

AAA panelists (attorneys and non-attorneys) that are active only on the AAA Labor Panel will be assessed and required to pay an annual panel fee of $625 in order to remain active on the AAA Labor Panel.

Labor panelists serving on multiple AAA-ICDR panels will be assessed a fee based on the prior year's compensation received through the AAA-ICDR (see above table).

For those serving on multiple AAA-ICDR panels – only one panel fee will be assessed.

AAA-ICDR Foundation® Donation

The AAA provides you the option to contribute a portion of your 2026 AAA Panel Fee payment to the American Arbitration Association-International Centre for Dispute Resolution Foundation® (AAA-ICDR Foundation).

For those assessed a Panel Fee of $275 or the Labor fee of $625, you have the option to donate 50% of your fee; for all others, you can elect to donate $350.

The grants funded by the Foundation harness alternative dispute resolution to tackle some of the most difficult issues of today. More details can be found on the Foundation's website www.aaaicdrfoundation.org under "What We've Funded."

The Foundation's priority focus area is to advance mediation and conflict resolution practices by integrating them into alternative crisis response initiatives and supporting community-centered approaches to public safety and law enforcement engagement.

Your involvement, by contributing a portion of your Panel Fee, will enable the Foundation to have a more meaningful impact in integrating mediation into crisis response, supporting ADR-focused scholarships, and advancing the Foundation's broader mission: to support the prevention and resolution of conflicts by expanding access to alternative dispute resolution.

To pay your panel fee please SIGN IN to your account at www.adr.org and open the "Have you satisfied your Annual Panel Requirements?" section. Then select Pay Panel Fee.
