- Leave it to us to handle all the logistical details, so you can focus on your case
- From major cities to remote areas, we have you covered with our extensive global network
- Transparent pricing and dedicated support team will give you peace of mind

Need a location for your hearing or deposition? For hybrid or in-person events, we have modern facilities with premium audio and video capabilities at many major AAA-ICDR locations.

Are your participants in a city that doesn't have an AAA-ICDR facility? No problem. Our Concierge Service will locate and book the ideal space for you, anywhere in the U.S. or internationally. We will make sure that your location is fully compatible with the space and technical requirements of your event. **Limited restrictions may apply.*
