

Hiresh is one of the founding partners at C&S Law Chambers, New Delhi, specializing in contract law, commercial arbitration, and cross-border disputes. He has extensive experience in handling domestic and international arbitration proceedings related to infrastructure projects and supply contracts. Beyond litigation, Hiresh advises corporations and firms on internal governance, commercial and employment contracts, and intellectual property law.

Hiresh holds a B.A., LL.B. (Hons.) from the National Law Institute University, Bhopal. He also holds an LL.M. from Columbia Law School, New York, where he graduated as a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar and received the Parker School Certificate for Recognition of Achievement in International and Comparative Law. Hiresh is a trained negotiator, having completed a 40-hour Negotiation Workshop. Hiresh is registered as an advocate with the Bar Council of Delhi and qualified to practice as an Advocate on Record before the Supreme Court of India.