

Camille Ramos-Klee is an Associate at Mascarenhas Law, where she focuses on investor-state and international commercial arbitration. She advises clients in complex cross-border disputes, serves as arbitrator, and has acted as tribunal secretary in proceedings under the rules of all major arbitral institutions, including the ICDR. She works in English and Spanish and has experience in matters involving parties from the Americas, Europe, and Asia. Camille is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, Mentorship Co-Chair of Young ITA, a member of ALARB, and a member of the New York City Bar Association's Arbitration and International Commercial Disputes Committees.