

Ana Victoria is a member of the international arbitration and dispute resolution team at Pérez Bustamante & Ponce, the largest law firm in Ecuador. Her practice encompasses domestic and international commercial litigation and arbitration, as well as administrative and constitutional law disputes. She has represented clients in complex matters across various industries, including hydrocarbons, mining, construction, technology, and telecommunications, in proceedings conducted under UNCITRAL, ICC, and ICSID rules. She is actively involved in academic forums, arbitration moots, and university lecturing. She serves as a representative of the Ecuador Chapter of the Club Español e Iberoamericano de Arbitraje (CEIA -40).