

Kartikey Mahajan is a Partner at Khaitan & Co, where he focuses on international arbitration and cross-border disputes, with particular responsibility for the firm's disputes practice in Singapore and the UAE. He advises multinational corporations, financial institutions and investors on complex commercial and investment disputes. Kartikey has experience in arbitrations under the ICDR, SIAC, LCIA, ICC, HKIAC and DIAC Rules, as well as in cross-border litigation. He is qualified as a Barrister in England & Wales, an Attorney in New York, an Advocate in India, a registered lawyer with DIFC and a Registered Foreign Lawyer in Singapore. He is based between Dubai and Singapore.