

Eylam Weiss is an accomplished legal practitioner and partner at Weiss, Porat & Co. in Tel Aviv, specializing in international arbitration, complex cross-border disputes and transactions.

Eylam has extensive experience acting as counsel in international and domestic cases and advising multinational corporations on complex commercial matters across the technology, industrial, infrastructure and commerce sectors.

He has unique experience working with East Asian companies, particularly from Japan, South Korea and Taiwan, and Israeli companies operating in Asian markets. Eylam is a founding member of the Israeli Forum for International Arbitration (IFIA) and is recognized by Legal 500 as an “extremely smart” practitioner.