

Surabhi Lal is a Principal Associate in Shardul Amarchand Mangaldas & Co.'s Dispute Resolution practice. She maintains a broad arbitration and commercial litigation practice, representing clients in both foreign-seated and domestic arbitrations conducted under several institutional rules. She appears regularly before Indian courts in complex commercial litigation, including proceedings to challenge arbitral awards and applications for the enforcement of foreign-seated awards in India. Her experience spans a diverse range of sectors, including energy, infrastructure, hospitality, banking, and corporate disputes. In addition to her contentious practice, she advises clients on commercial and pre-dispute matters, assisting with litigation planning and the formulation of dispute strategy.
