

Baao Zhao is an equity partner at Shihui Partners in Beijing, focusing on international commercial arbitration and cross-border dispute resolution. He has acted as counsel in proceedings administered by AAA-ICDR, CIETAC, BAC, HKIAC, SIAC, SCC and SCIA, and advised on court proceedings in the United States, Hong Kong, Luxembourg and the Cayman Islands. His practice spans investment, joint venture, corporate governance, technology and intellectual property disputes. Baao is a PRC-qualified lawyer and holds MPhil and Magister Juris degrees from Oxford. He speaks and writes on international arbitration and has been recognized for his disputes practice by Legal 500 and LEGALBAND.