

Joanna Iwanicka is Counsel at Queritius, a GAR 100 arbitration firm, and a dual-qualified attorney admitted in Poland and New York. She represents clients before courts and international arbitral tribunals in manufacturing, construction, banking, Med-Tech, IT and GameDev sectors. She holds an LL.M. in International Business and Trade Law from Fordham University, is an AAA Higginbotham Fellow (2024) and a member of the 2026 ICC Advanced Arbitration Academy cohort for Western Europe. As Chair of the American and British Law Section of the Warsaw Bar Association, she co-initiated cooperation agreements between the NYSBA International Section and Poland's leading bar associations.