

Camilo Castro Martínez is an associate in the Arbitration and Dispute Resolution practice at Polanía Abogados in Bogotá, Colombia. He has contributed to over 20 domestic and international arbitration cases involving contractual, transportation, energy, and infrastructure disputes, with awards and claims exceeding USD 80 million. He acts as counsel to parties in arbitration proceedings, with availability to serve as tribunal secretary. His practice also focuses on investment arbitration and disputes involving state entities. He holds an LL.M. in International Law from Universidad de La Sabana and is a Higginbotham Fellow of the AAA-ICDR.