Longtime AAA® Arbitrator and Mediator Honored for Advocacy Efforts

AAA-ICDR® Council Member Eugene I. Farber Recognized by Peers during Panel Gathering

NEW YORK, N.Y.—March 8, 2019—The American Arbitration Association-International Centre for Dispute Resolution® (AAA-ICDR), honored Council member, lawyer and advocate, Eugene I. Farber, Esq. with the AAA-ICDR Vision Award, during an event at this year’s AAA-ICDR Panel Conference in Nashville.

The Vision Award goes to those who reflect the mission and vision of the organization, leading the way in conflict management around the world through actions built on integrity, innovation and the highest standards of service. Farber has exemplified these ideals during his tenure as AAA-ICDR Council Member and Chair of the Arbitrator Council Committee. In these roles he helped spearhead efforts involving the Fitness of Arbitrators to serve, Billing Guidelines, Procedures for Choosing a Chair, and Peer Evaluations.

“We are proud to honor Eugene Farber for living up to our vision, to recognize his unique contributions to arbitration, arbitrator fitness and education,” said India Johnson, President and CEO of the AAA-ICDR. “He has played an integral role in our mission of providing fair, ethical and impartial dispute resolution to parties.”

Farber also helps support and train new arbitrators and AAA A. Leon Higginbotham, Jr. Fellows Program. As an arbitrator he has served on pro bono and reduced fee cases.

“It’s an honor to accept such an award,” said Farber upon receiving the award. “We work hard at what we do and we all want to make our work better.”

During his over 40 years of experience in the field, Farber has served as a lawyer, arbitrator and mediator on countless proceedings related to everything from energy disputes, international, real estate, construction, finance, securities and more. His many advocacy roles include president of the College of Commercial Arbitrators, chair of the American Bar Association Arbitration Committee and a fellow with the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.
